The most striking feature of cancer is that agents in the environment can produce cancer simply by us interacting with them. Does this mean that cancer comes from the environment only? Most people are largely aware of the fact that cigarette smoke is a carcinogen, a cancer causing agent which interacts with lung tissue to produce rather extreme forms of lung cancer. Pollutants from factories, household cleaning chemicals, and even pesticides from agricultural crop dustings may contain carcinogens that increase the likelihood of producing cancer.. Though I have heard cases where children as young as 6 years old attempt suicide because they believe they were born in the wrong body. And I am viciously saddened by situations like this, I really don't know what I would do as a parent in this situation. I must stand by what I believe, and that is we are all the way (physically) we were meant to be.
